

JACK SHAW

Transformational Leadership

Leading Your Organization through Transformational Change

Motivating people and achieving established goals are worthwhile. But these are management, not leadership.

A transformational leader must drive radically innovative changes in their organization's mindset, processes, and business model. And they must actively participate in the leadership of equally transformative changes in the business and social ecosystems of which their organization is a part.

To do so they must clearly visualize their transformational outcomes, gain the commitment of their team, and lead the drive to achieve their objectives. In this presentation, Jack Shaw outlines the five characteristics of transformational leaders and lays out the key steps managers and executives must take to become one.

Jack will customize this program for specific industry verticals or business functions on request. Examples include:

Transformational Leadership in Manufacturing

Transformational Leadership in Accounting and Auditing

Jack can also custom craft this presentation for technology solution providers and professional services organizations such as CPA and law firms. These customized programs can be delivered in-house to employees or to clients and prospects at customer conferences and marketing events.

Jack integrates his executive experience in Industry, technology, and consulting to speak on Innovation, Change Management, and Transformational Leadership. And, he brings decades of experience designing, developing, and implementing emerging technologies to speak with a deep understanding of such current leading-edge technologies as Artificial Intelligence, Blockchain, 5G, and the Internet of Things and how these will impact business and society.

Jack Shaw is an Innovation and Change Management Strategist with more than 30 years' experience helping leaders transform their organizations' digital ecosystems amid new waves of technology.
